

Mini-Bio Jan Dzulko, Founder and CEO

CEO Jan Dzulko has been building the start-up and phone-as-a-service pioneer everphone GmbH since 2016. In 2003 he founded his first company pecumax, a B2B SaaS company which enabled financial advisors and brokers to provide data-supported customer advice. In 2008 he sold the company to CHECK24 and in the same year joined CHECK24 Insurance AG as CEO. In 2012, Jan founded the Incubator M Cube together with the founders of CHECK24, which built local marketplaces. In 2016 M Cube was renamed and became part of CHECK24 under the name Locadi.

Jan grew up in Frankfurt (Germany) and studied economics in Mannheim and Oestrich-Winkel.
